

2006 Census Test Scotland Counts

The General Register Office for Scotland will conduct a Census Test in parts of Scotland on April 23rd 2006.

Why?

Census information is vital in planning your schools, hospitals, houses, and jobs and to provide services to your community. The next national Census is in 2011 and to ensure its success we need to test new procedures in a live operation. More information on the Census Test is available at:

www.gro-scotland.gov.uk/statistics/census/2006-CensusTest

How does that affect me?

From now to July, locally recruited Census staff will visit a number of households in your area to deliver and collect Census Test forms. It's very important to us that you complete your Census Test form.

All information we collect is treated in the utmost confidence and is protected by law.

How can I find out more?

If you want to find out more about the Census and how you can use Census data, call us on 0131 314 4231. Alternatively, log on to www.scrol.gov.uk to see what services your area needs.

Please help us to help your community

WE ARE HAPPY TO MEET WITH LOCAL GROUPS, COMMUNITY AND TENANTS' ASSOCIATIONS TO EXPLAIN
WHAT THE CENSUS IS FOR AND WHAT IT CAN DO FOR YOU.
