

The General Register Office for Scotland
Resources by Departmental Aims
For the year ended 31 March 2006

2004-05		2005-06
Total Resources £'000		Direct Resources £'000	Allocated Administration £'000	Total Resources £'000
229	To make available public records about individuals to customers, including recreational and professional genealogists.	(1,819)	1,804	(15)
2,593	To administer registration of vital events (births and deaths, marriages, civil partnerships, divorces and adoptions) and the formalities of marriage and civil partnerships, including the conduct of civil marriages and civil partnerships.	1,418	1,605	3,023
563	To compile the vital events database efficiently, accurately, comprehensively, to make it readily usable, and to advise users and potential users on its use. To maintain on a repayment basis for The Scottish Executive a register of all patients and to supply information from this register to health boards and to approved medical researchers.	78	1,052	1,130
2,388	To make arrangements as required under the Census Act 1920, for the taking of periodic Censuses of Scotland's population. To disseminate results from the 2001 census and to plan and undertake the next census. To prepare population estimates and projections for the administrative areas of Scotland; and to disseminate data and other information on population statistics, vital events and census topics with associated geographic information.	2,241	1,546	3,787
5,773		1,918	6,007	7,925